

Broadcast Innovation Day Bingen 2019

Broadcast Solutions will hold a new issue of its Broadcast Innovation Days at their headquarters in Bingen, Germany, on 28 November 2019. The one-day event is free of charge and will be packed with information on new products, future technologies, hands-on demos, lectures and exhibits and will show current projects under production based in the halls of one of Europe's biggest system integrators. The company established the Broadcast Innovation Days as a series to inform visitors about the latest innovations and trends in broadcasting. Already 15 Innovation Days took place all over the world with more than 1.500 visitors attending.
