

Press Release

Jandelsbrunn, 18 May 2020

RENT AND TRAVEL continues to guarantee free rebooking

- Flexible booking, travel in safety
- Zero cost risk if restrictions apply
- Ideal for newcomers to caravanning

Jandelsbrunn. All holiday destinations remain closed for the time being. Nevertheless, there are growing signs that point to a gradual return to normality. This would also make it possible to travel again, probably within Germany to begin with, followed by Austria and Switzerland.

Travelling in a CUV (Caravanning Utility Vehicle), motorhome or caravan is the ideal solution for all those who are currently considering a holiday. While on the road, you are not reliant on restaurants and your mobile accommodation guarantees total self-sufficiency at your destination. You can avoid heavily used public facilities. What is more, no other mode of travel offers a more reliable guarantee that you can continue to observe the required social distancing measures for persons outside your own family. When it comes to protecting your health, CUVs, motorhomes and caravans are the undisputed champions because you enjoy the same privacy as you do at home – no matter where you happen to be. This aspect is currently attracting many newcomers.

RENT AND TRAVEL, the innovative rental brand of Knaus Tabbert, is here to help you and all like-minded holidaymakers plan the ideal, flexible and safe holiday. All rental contracts completed up to 31 May 2020 can be rebooked for a later time free of charge. This is conditional on curfew, travel and contact restrictions being in place in the holiday destination on the date the holiday was due to commence. You can always rebook free of charge up to 14 days before the date of departure provided that the rental period, category and rental station are not changed. The only additional charge payable is the difference to higher seasonal prices that may apply in the new holiday period.

RENT AND TRAVEL offers more than 1900 mint-condition KNAUS, TABBERT, T@B and WEINSBERG vehicles at around 160 rental stations throughout Germany – perfect for those last-minute and spontaneous holiday plans. We welcome not only experienced caravan holidaymakers, but also interested newcomers: Our seasoned experts will provide personal, in-depth and reliable advice on every possible topic to ensure you enjoy a safe first holiday in a CUV, motorhome or caravan.
