

Press release
Marcel Seidel Auctions

Automobilia auction in Ladenburg on 6/7 November 2020

Ladenburg A total of 3,090 items were up for sale across the two days of the auction. Bids were accepted, leading to a sale, for a good 80% of the items.

This included Ayrton Senna's crash helmet from the 1988 Formula 1 season, when Senna became world champion for the first time. The helmet was worth around €102,000 to its new owner. An original racing suit of Jim Clark fetched €29,640. Clark wore the suit by Les Leston in the 1963/1964 season. Original documents from a Porsche 917 changed hands for €17,700. A speedometer from a Porsche 356 Gmünd from 1949 was auctioned for €10,070. With lot number 1443, an original engine unit from a Porsche 2.7 Carrera RS was on offer, selling for €71,100.

This is just a selection of the further results of the November auction at the Dr. Carl Benz Car Museum in Ladenburg: Lot number 3076, Auto Union bronze sculpture Bernd Rosemeyer, result: €7,700; Lot number 2063 Porsche advertising poster from 1956 "Fahren in seiner schönsten Form" (Driving at its most beautiful), result: €7,230; Lot number 1084, Walter Gotschke painting Targa Florio 1924, result: €7,110; Lot number 6693, negatives of the Bern Grand Prix 1936-1938, result €3,556; Lot number 6052, negatives of Le Mans film with Steve McQueen, result €1,778.

All results of the auction, as well as the direct sales, can be found at www.automobilia-ladenburg.de/

You can simply download the high-resolution images at 300 dpi in addition to the text at www.zeilenspiel.de/presselogs from our homepage.

Our next online only auction is starting on 27.11.2020.
Consignments are accepted at any time!

www.automobilia-ladenburg.de info@automobilia-ladenburg.de
Tel.: 0049 (0) 6203-95 77 76
Mobile: 0049 (0) 152-33 77 25 73

Walter Gotschke painting Targa Florio 1924, result:
€7,110

Original racing suit of Jim Clark fetched €29,640

Ayrton Senna's crash helmet from the 1988 Formula 1 season ; €102,000

Original documents from a Porsche 917 changed hands for €17,700.

Engine unit from a Porsche 2.7 Carrera RS, selling for €71,100

Speedometer Porsche 356 Gmünd from 1949; €10,070

Porsche advertising poster from 1956 "Fahren in seiner schönsten Form" (Driving at its most beautiful), result: €7,230

Auto Union bronze sculpture Bernd Rosemeyer, result:
€7,700

Negatives of Le Mans film with Steve McQueen, result €1,778

negatives of the Bern Grand Prix 1936-1938, result €3,556